MARGARITA

What you have here is fresh lime juice, sparkling spring water and pure 100% agave tequila made the old way. Hey, if you're going to have a margarita, might as well make it a perfect one.

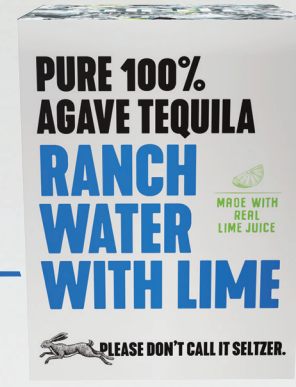

PALOMA

Here comes the sun. Fresh, tangy grapefruit juice, sparkling spring water and pure, 100% agave tequila made the old way. The Suerte Paloma. It's the Mexican way of saying "life is good".

RANCH WATER WITH LIME

This is clean, crisp happiness in a can. Sparkling, fizzy spring water, made with real lime juice and pure, 100% agave tequila made the old way. Pour it over ice and you're in Mexico.

MANGORITA

We took sweet, seductive mango nectar, the color of a Baja sunset. Then we blended it with award-winning, 100% agave blanco tequila. Then we put that glorious golden cocktail in this can. Lucky you.
